Associate Professor Munns is a Senior Staff Specialist at the Children’s Hospital at Westmead and Conjoint Associate Professor in the Sydney Medical School at the University of Sydney. Following the completion of his Paediatric and Endocrinology training at The Royal Children’s Hospital, Brisbane, Australia, Associate Professor Munns spent two years as a Clinical Associate in Genetic and Metabolic Bone Disorders at the Shriners Hospital for Children, Montreal, Canada.

Associate Professor Munns was awarded his PhD through the University of Queensland in 2004. He is an expert in the diagnosis and management of primary and secondary paediatric bone disorders. This remains his primary research interest and he has published numerous papers in this field.

AIMSS Seminar & Lunch

“Paediatric Osteoporosis: Present and Future”

Craig Munns
MBBS FRACP PhD
Conjoint Associate Professor, Paediatrics & Child Health
Faculty of Medicine, University of Sydney

Date: 12:00 – 12:45pm, Thursday 27th February, 2014
12:45 – 1:00pm, Light lunch & refreshments
RSVP: Monday 24th February, 2014
Venue: Auditorium, first floor, Western Centre for Health, Research and Education (WCHRE) at Sunshine hospital
Contacts: E: aimss-nwac@unimelb.edu.au